Dear Parents and Carers,

Next week, we will be marking three important events at Thomas Hall School that support values we talk about regularly with our students. These are kindness, respect, and community.

Odd Socks Day – Monday 10th November. On Monday, students are invited to wear odd socks to school as part of our recognition of Anti-Bullying Week. This simple act helps raise awareness and serves as a symbol of celebrating individuality and promoting kindness. We have been discussing the importance of respect and empathy with all children, and this day reinforces our ongoing commitment to creating a safe and inclusive environment for everyone.

Remembrance Day – Tuesday 11th November. On Tuesday, we will be observing Remembrance Day with a moment of reflection across the school. We welcome students who are part of cadet organisations to wear their cadet uniforms on this day as a mark of respect.

Children in Need – Friday 14th November. On Friday, we will be supporting the Children in Need charity. Students are encouraged to wear non-uniform on this day. We kindly ask parents to make a voluntary donation via ParentPay to support this fantastic cause. Every contribution helps make a difference in the lives of children and young people across the UK. You will be able to see how to donate via ParentPay during next week.

Thank you for your continued support in helping us promote these important values and causes within our school community.

Yours sincerely,

Phil Arnold
Headteacher
